

Dear Apostle of the Immaculate Heart of Mary,

Thank you profoundly for the very generous donation you have sent, to help the Living Rosary reach the whole world. God love you!!!

A most dangerous thing for anyone to do is to drive while he is very tired. What a disaster if he should fall asleep at the wheel! Our spiritual life may be likened to driving a car. We may be going about our business, embracing life and duty, attempting to live our faith, but taking things for granted. The warning signs of impending disaster are so often times ignored; attending Holy Mass less often, omitting our Morning or Evening prayers and our daily examination of conscience, allowing things into our home which endanger our faith and the faith of our children, failing to kneel as a family and pray at least a decade of the Holy Rosary each day. Suddenly, we find ourselves asleep at the wheel. Temptation is there and we have no spiritual strength to resist it. If we are blessed, we will wake up in time to realize that we are in danger of losing the spiritual life given to us at Baptism. If we fail to wake up in time, we will sleep forever in our sins.

"Stay Awake" is a wonderful theme for the Advent Season. The Master of our house is Our Blessed Lord. He comes at the end of our lives. If He finds us ready and waiting, the door of our soul will open to His Presence. If, when He comes, He finds us spiritually asleep with the door of our soul firmly closed to Him, then we must face an eternity of coldness and hatred, an eternity without Love. Each of us has a unique set of warning signals which tell us we are about to doze off, or fall into temptation.

We must watch for these signs in our lives. Without Christ, our lives become materialistic, selfish and arrogant. Without Sanctifying Grace, we lose our capacity to love. Advent is a beautiful Season of Hope. God alone can fill our emptiness and our loftiest of desires.

Through your gifts, prayers and sacrifices, you have brought to the hearts and homes of millions around the world devotion, love, and hope. Mary's sweet Infinite King will wrap His arms around your neck and bless you with peace of soul and, at the same time, He will bring peace to your family.

With much love, prayers and deepest gratitude,

PATTI MELVIN, ULRA Director
